

terribly tiny tales™

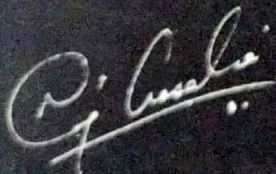

- certificate -

Micro-fiction is a challenging form of writing. Not only does it demand great storytelling but also a command over language.

You, Harsh Singh, have successfully participated in the workshop conducted at Sinhgad Karandak - Tectonic, in SKNCOE, Pune, on 12th February, 2017.

Both you and we are richer by a tale and a hundred experiences.

May your life be full of stories.
